

FIGURE 1.17. Darwin's explanation of coral reefs as shown in The Voyage of the Beagle. He explained that as the "new encircling barrier-reef" slowly sinks down, the corals continue to grow upward. The sea encroaches on the island until only the atoll remains (dotted curve).